AMERICAN TURF CONGRESS.

Several Important Changes Made in Track and Other Rules.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 8.—The American turf congress was in secret session here today. Mr. Van L. Kirkman, of Nashville, occupied the chair in the absence of President E. F. Clay. There were present Catesby Woodford, of Lexington; Col. Lewis M. Clark, of Louisville; Frank N. Shaw, of the Twin City Jockey Club; Capt. James H. Reese, of Memphis; Judge L. P. Tarleton, of Latonia, St. Louis and Denver were not represented, but sent letters. Mr. E. C. Hopper, of Latonia, acted as secretary. The City of Mexico and Little Rock, Ark., applied for membership. Their applications were not acted upon. Among important changes were a rule requiring owners to register their colors with the turf congress; also a rule requiring all horses to be entered in the American Stud Book. These are precautions against ringers. An important change is the following: "Two-year-old geldings are allowed three pounds. Geldings three years old and over are allowed five pounds from March 1 to Sept. 1, and three pounds thereafter." A rule was adopted penalizing a starter or his assistants for seeking or acquiring a knowledge of the betting before a race. A more important rule is one that in dead meats in selling races the owners may divide, in which case both horses must be sold, and the excess, if any, be divided be-tween the association and the third horse. An extreme penalty is affixed to a proposition or agreement to bid or not bid on the winner of a selling race. Jockey fees in races bringing $500 to the winner are fixed at $5 for losing and $15 for winning. In all other races, in the absence of a contract, the fees shall be $10 and $25. Extreme penalties are affixed to outsiders for offering, and to jockeys for accepting, offers of extra fees, except by permission of the owner. The meeting adjourned till

LENKER MAY DIE.

A Brewery Wagon Driver Injured in a Runaway.

Michael Lenker, a young married man employed as shipping clerk by the Lieber Brewing Company, received injuries in a runaway accident yesterday that may prove fatal. He was driving on South street, near Delaware, in a light road wagon, when his horse attempted to run. In his efforts to stop the animal Lenker ran the vehicle against a tree and the harness broke. The horse, loosed from the incumbrance, plunged forward, but Lenker held to the lines and was dragged over the dashboard to the ground. This frightened the horse, and he started at a rapid pace. Lenker continued his grasp on the reins, and was dragged several blocks before the hors, stopped. When picked up the injured man did not show apparent injuries, but was shortly taken with violent delirium, from which he is yet suffering. He was taken to his home, at No. 59 South Delaware street, where Dr. Buehler found him in a critical condition. The physician discovered a concussion of the brain, and believes that there are serious internal injuries.

Violated the Postal Laws.

Deputy United States Marshal Stewart yesterday went to Lopez, Marshall county, where he arrested William Penrod, a farmer, on the charge of violating the postal laws. The prisoner was taken to Elkhart, given a hearing by the United States commissioner at that point, and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $200. Penrod recently sent to one of his neighbors a postal card threatening to bring suit for an amount of money due him. The postal was placed in the hands of the United States officers by the recipient.

Western Writers' Association. The executive committee of the Western Writers' Association met at the Bates House yesterday afternoon with the committee on arrangements to attend to a few preliminaries for the June meeting of the association, which is to be held at Warsaw. Chairman Redding, of the executive committee, presided. Miss Ida May Davis, of Terre Haute, was the secretary. It was decided to ask Prof. John Clark Ridpath to read the annual lecture at the June meet-

Appropriations Over $100,000 in Excess of Probable Receipts.

Board of Works Considers the Water System and Orders Two More Sewers -The Police Surgeon.

The law requires the city treasurer to make his settlement with the city of the city's share of the November installment of taxes on Nov. 6, but Nov. 6 has gone and tinguishes them from no settlement was made. This is not the fault of the treasurer, however; rather, it is the fault of the taxpayers, who wait until the last day to pay the sums they owe the county and city in the shape of taxes. Mr. Holt has notified the controller that he can draw against $19,000 more if he chooses. It is quite probable that the estimates of the city's share will be about $10,000 in excess of the actual receipts.

The controller is determined to hold the different departments down to the lowest notch in expenditures, else the city will be -the very latest styles far behind at the end of the year. The estimates furnished the controller by the boards during the Sullivan regime of the expenditures for the coming year are over $100,000 in excess of the probable receipts, and it cannot be readily seen how the old boards dared to ask for the appropriations made by the Council, in view of the estimated receipts. To keep within the receipts the new boards will have to keep expenses down to at least half of the appropriations. Controller Trusler yesterday emphasized this fact to the several heads of the departments who called on him. Mr. Wildman, of the Board of Works, was shown that it would be necessary for his board to be very economical, and not to incur indebtedness on the strength of the appropriation for the department.

> The estimated receipts in Mr. Woellen's report to the Council amounted to $876,946.86, not yet sold and the $31,500 tied up in Frenzel's bank. The money in the bank will not be available the present year, even if the courts decide in favor of the city in the Coffin & Stanton suit. It remains to be seen whether the $21,000 in bonds can be sold. This would leave the estimated receipts for the fiscal year $52,500 short, or $824,446.86. The estimated expenses for the city, as submitted by Mr. Woollen, amounted to $868,843.06. In addition to an appropration for this amount he recommended that the Council make appropriations of the balances standing unexpended in the different funds at the end of the year. That is, where the city did not spend all of an appropriation in the year ending Aug. 31, 1893, he asked that the sum represented as being unexpended be reappropriated. These balances reappropriated amounted to $47,034.84. This sum, of course, was not actual cash, but merely represented a sum against which the city could draw, and its reappropriation meant that the different departments were given the privilege to expend just that much more money the year following. Thus the appropriations made by the Council were increased to $973,316.33, as the old balances amounted to $104,473.27. Deducting the estimated receipts, without the Sellers farm bonds and the money tied up in bank, there would be an excess of $148.-419.47 of appropriations over receipts. This excess is almost $45,000 more than the actual excess of appropriations at the close of the last fiscal year. A good reason there for economy

If the boards draw warrants that the controller cannot legally refuse to approve, and these warrants run close oup to the sums appropriated, the city's finances will be in even a more deplorable state than they were when the Sullivan crowd turned over the city to the Republicans. The boards have the legal authority to draw to the limit of the amounts appropriated, but if they do the responsibility for mismaragement will rest directly on them. The city must confine its expenses to the most necessary ones.

TWO MORE SEWERS.

Board of Works Adopt Resolutions-The Water-Works Question

The Board of Works, at its meeting last night, adopted resolutions for the construction of two more sewers. One of these is the main outlet from the foot of Kentucky avenue to a point below the Belt railroad. The outlet will be over 1,900 feet long, and about six feet in diameter. The construction of this sewer will give a large number of men employment, but it will be over a month before the contract can be let. The other sewer to be constructed is to be in McCarty street, from East street to Virginia avenue. It will be several feet in diameter. The city engineer was ordered to change a resolution so as to provide for a drain instead of a sewer in Lincoln lane. The cost of the main outlet will be assessed against the entire city.

The street-sweeping problem came up for discussion, and after that the members fell to talking about the city's water-works sys-tem and the advisability and feasibility of the city owning the plant. The city now pays $50,000 a year to the water copmany for service, a sum which is more than 6 per cent. on $800,000. The city has been ordering new mains at the rate of forty thousand feet a year, and the bill for water is thereby increasing steadily. All the members thought it would be greatly to the city's advantage to own the system. If the system was under municipal ownership the water rates could be reduced, and, at the same time, the city would receive an enormous revenue from private consumers. There is a provision in the water company's charter whereby the city can buy the plant at any time, the city to appoint one appraiser, the water company to appoint another and these two to select a third. Mr. Conduitt thought the rates charged by the company were excessive in particulars, although the company claims its rates are lower than those charged in any other city the size of Indianapolis. Street improvements were also discussed in an informal way. Mr. Widlman thought the streets leading to the principal gravel roads that enter the city ought to be improved first.

THE BOARD OF WORKS.

Protest Against the West Michigan-Street Brick Payement.

There was a strong protest at the Board of Works meeting yesterday morning against the acceptance of the new brick pavement on Michigan street, between Missouri and Blake. F. C. Whitcomb, Henry Russe and M. F. Connett appeared as a committee, claiming that the broken stone foundation was not a proper one, and that it was no better than broken stone and sand. Further, they urged that the bricks were chipped and not up to the standard of the samples filed with the board, that the chipped edges were turned down and that the interstices were not filled with tar. The board promised the committee to take no further action toward accepting the improvement until the city engineer examines the work. The committee said that if the work was accepted by the board the citizens would carry the matter into the courts.

The new brick improvement on South West street, from Kentucky avenue to Morris street, was accepted. The total cost of the improvement is $39,285.54. If the property owners do not notify the controller within thirty days that they desire to take advantage of the Barrett law they will have to pay cash. Robert Kennington, the contractor on the Madison-avenue improvement, was notified several times to repair the street according to his contract. He did not appear before the board, stating that as soon as Mr. Conduitt retired he would show up. The board did not like this manner of doing business, and Kennington's bondsmen were notified that the street would have to be put in order or suit would be brought at once. Councilman Stein was before the board asking that public improvements be pushed as fast as possible, so as to give men work. The board explained that the contractor

A petition for a fire cistern on Lloyd street, between Parker and Pawpaw, was referred to the Board of Safety. The board ordered papers prepared for the paving with brick of the east sidewalk of Archer street, from St. Clair to Clifford avenue. An electric light was ordered placed at New York and Liberty streets.
In the afternoon the board considered the petition of a number of property owners damaged by the White river levee to be paid the damages. A letter was written the controller asking if there was any money on hand for paying these damages. Then the board adjourned for a night session.

POLICE SURGEON.

It Is Reported that Each Member of the Board Has a Man. The Board of Safety has not yet been able to determine upon a police surgeon, and it was rumored yesterday that a deadlock existed on the board on account of each commissioner having a candidate. The rumor had it that Colonel Ruckle wanted Dr. John Oliver appointed, while Mr. Conner wanted the place to go to Dr. George Kahlo. The same report said that Mr. White wanted Dr. Earp retained. President Ruckle said that there was nothing in the report; that the board had not yet had time to consider the appointment. Mr. White was somewhat evasive when asked if each commissioner did not have a can-didate for the place. He though perhaps Mr. Conner might favor Dr. Kahlo and Col. Ruckle Dr. Oliver.

CONSIDERING THE ORDINANCE

Finance Committee Wants a Cut in the Pawnbrokers' Licenses. The finance committee of the Council held private meeting at the city clerk's office last night to consider a number of ordinances that were referred to it by the Council on Monday night. It was decided to recommend that the pawnbrokers' ordinance be amended so that the annual license fee will be $100, instead of $200. The committee favors the ordinance with this amendment. The ordinance taxing the breweries was discussed, but it was laid over until next week for final action on the part of the committee. The peddlers' ordinance and Mr. Coulter's ordinance to tax drug stores that sell liquor were also laid over until next week. Mr. Rauh's plan to refund the city's entire debt at 4 per cent. was not discussed.

Necessary Lights. The controller thinks the city can save some money on its light bills. A number of cases are reported in parts of the city where two lights are burning on the same corner. On a Douglass-street corner it is stated that an electric light, a vapor light and a gas light are vying with each other in furnishing light to a few people in the neighborhood. On Tenth street, between Illinois and Tennessee, a short block, are three vapor lights, while on both corners of the block are electric lights. There are very few shade trees on the street at that. In Sim Coy's ward, at the corner of Fletcher avenue and Spruce street, are two lamps, one a gasoline and the other a gas lamp. William McGinnis lives on one corner and James Bourton on the other. The same is true of Spann and Linden. The controller thinks if an investigation is made a number of cases of this kind will be discovered.

Superintendent Ferguson's Claim. Superintendent Ferguson, of the City Hos pital, called on the controller, yesterday morning, to explain the contract for putting shade trees on the hospital grounds. He said that the shade of trees was needed for convalescing patients. He thought the trees could be ordered in the same manner as drugs. The controller did not see how any board but the Board of Works could order a permanent improvement to city property.

Ordered a Saloon Closed. Deputy Controller Harvey yesterday found that a saloon at 299 East Washington street, run in the name of C. W. Scheele, was delinquent almost a year or its city license. He notified the police de partment, and asked that the place be losed. In the afternoon he was informed that the place had been closed until the proprietor takes out the city license.

Another Bill Refused. The controller yesterday refused to allow the election bills of Martin Draper, W. H. Eden and others. They were told to go to Frank Bird for their money, as he had a contract for the work which the men were supposed to have done.

There was a general meeting of the Mary Washington National Memorial Association yesterday afternoon at the Propylaeum, and there was an attendance of more than fifty leading society women. There seems to be considerable interest in the movement, and most of those present paid their membership fee and became members of the organization. The object of the association is to erect a monument over the grave of Mary Washington at Fredericksburg, and thereby perpetuate the memory of the mother of Washington. For this purpose the women of the United States are asked to form societies and raise funds. Mrs. John C. Dean, the president of the society, presided, and Mrs. James Lodge acted as secretary, in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. A. L. Mason. The badges of membership are dark blue ribbons, with a profile in silver of Mary Washington. The main object of the meeting was to make preparations for the Old Colonial ball, which will be given at the Propylaeum the evening of the 29th of the present month. It will be a very swell affair, and the officers hope to have the ladies and gentlemen wear the colonial costumes, if they will. The character dress is not necessary, however, and evening dress will be in good form. The whole building will be open for the ball, and it will be made as elegant as possible. These entertainments have been given in other cities, and have been very successful. The amount asked for the monument is $50,000. and of this amount $30,000 has been raised. so that there is comparatively a small amount left for several States to raise. Among the ladies who have become members of the M. W. N. M. A. in this city are: Mrs. W. F. Mason, Mrs. J. C. Dean, Mrs. James Lodge, Mrs. A. L. Mason, Mrs. J. E. Roberts, Mrs. H. S. New, Mrs. J. J. SOMERVILLE-COLE. A very pretty wedding, though an exceedingly simple one, which occurred yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, was that of Miss Blanche Cole and Mr. John Somerville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George MacIntosh, of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, in the presence of the families and the most intimate friends, at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Louisa S. Staats, on North Meridian street. The bride, who is a beautiful brunette, wore a quaint gown of white mull over white satin, and carried a single, long-stemmed Bride rose. The bride and groom stood beroses. The remainder of the room was also tastefully adorned with plants and roses. After the congratulations had been extended a wedding supper was served. The bride's table was decorated with candelabra at either end, and strewn over the cloth were pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Somerville will not make any wedding journey, but have gone at once to reside at No. 301 North Delaware street, where they will receive their friends Wednesdays after the first of

TWENTY LIVES LOST

Details of the Burning of a Steamer on Lake Nipissing.

The Vessel Caught Fire Near Goose Island-Only Seven Persons Saved-Albany-Philadelphia Collision.

NORTH BAY, Ont., Nov. 8 .- A frightful casualty occurred on Lake Nipissing, yesterday, which resulted in the loss of a large number of lives and the destruction of a valuable vessel. The steamer Frazer was proceeding up the lake, and when about twenty-four miles west of North Bay, near what is known as Goose island, fire was discovered on board. All efforts to extinguish it proved unavailing, and the entire vessel was soon wrapped in flames. Twenty lives have been lost. Seven persons were saved. The steamer was owned by Davidson & Hay, wholesale grocers of Toronto, and at the time the fire broke out was on the way from Gallender to Davidson & Hay's lumber camp, at the western end of Lake Nipissing. Besides the crew, which consited of Captain Douglas and four or five men, there were on board some twenty lumbermen. Of the whole number on board the steamer only seven men escaped, two of whom were members of the crew, namely, the fireman and cook, A sedw, loaded with supplies for the lumber camp, was in tow of the steamer, but was cut loose and drifted to the shore. The cause of the fire has not yet been learned. A lifeboat belonging to the steamer has been found drifting with a hole in one side. The burning boat was sighted from Frank's bay by Captain Burrett and an Indian, who jumped in a sail boat and hastened to the assistance of the imperiled crew; but by the time they reached the spot the Frazer was burned to the water's edge. Seven survivors had succeeded in reaching the scow which the Frazer had in tow, and these were rescued. The boat's hull sank in about twentyfive feet of water, and the only thing now marking the scene of the disaster is a short piece of the stack extending above the water. The large loss of life is due to the fact that the engines were not stopped before the engineer was driven away by flames. In consequence, the Frazer continued to plow through the water at a furious pace. A life boat which was launched and occupied by a number of men was caught under the wheel and immediately

Sutherland, Alfred Barbeau, William Storey, Thomas Osborne, Alexander Douglass, John Haw, Isaac Shaw, John Smalley, Thomas Massey, Thomas Bowers, Thomas Sheriff, James McCann and seven others whose names are not known by the survivors. The survivors are: Neal McArthur, Alexander Robertson, Stanley McMannemy, R. P. Haroah, fire-man W. McInter, Edward Cook, John

The Collision Off Point Aux Barques. PORT HURON, Mich., Nov. 8.-A. J. Mc-Donald, of the Albany, and twenty men from the lost steamers arrived here this morning. Captain McDonald and his crew refused to say one word regarding the accident. Fifteen men from the Albany and ten from the Philadelphia came down on the narrow-gauge railway. One of the Philadelphia's crew said he had just come off watch and was smoking a cigarette when the boats collided. They came together with considerable force, but not enough to indicate that either boat was running at full speed. The Philadelphia, he claims, was due on her course, and the Albany off her course when the latter was struck. The Philadelphia had exchanged signals for passing and checked her speed twice. The fog was so thick no one could see ahead over two rods. The Philadelphia, he says, could have made shore if she had not stopped to tow the Albany, and he thinks that it was a big half hour's tow before the Albany sank. The Albany had a stowaway aboard named Joe Church, a lad about eighteen years old, who came from England. The boy was asleep when the collision occurred, and was awakened He thinks the boats must have struck hard. He had no time to get his clothes on. Captain McDonald, who has been on the lakes twenty-three years, seemed to be too appalled at the awful loss of life to talk. In his judgment, he said, he did not think the yawl which is reported to have capsized was foul of the wreck. There was some sea on and a wind blowing, despite the fog, and the boat may have capsized. However, he does not think either boat was overloaded, both yawls being the same size. There was plenty of room for half a dozen more in the one in which he was saved. Captain Huff, of the Philadelphia and Mate George Drury, of the Albany, have gone to Tawas to identify the dead bodies. Charles Rowan, wheelman of the Philadelphia, aged twenty-two, who is a single man, is among the lost, He is thought to be from this city. The Philadelphia's crew will receive transportation and report at Erie, and the Albany's crew The bodies of eleven of the victims of the collision are at East Tawas.

A CHICAGO CATERER.

HE IS A VERY POPULAR MAN IN HIS OWN CITY.

SOME VERY INTERESTING THINGS HE HAS TO TELL.

AND AS HE IS A FAMOUS CATERED HE KNOWS JUST WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT.

One of the most famous and popular caterers in the city of Chicago is John E. Shaw, of 573 Madison street. Everybody knows him and everbody is familiar with his ability to provide just what the people

The extraordinary amount of work incident to the world's fair almost prostrated Mr. Shaw. He was terribly run down, weak, nervous, tired all the time until he became a mere shadow of himself. He had successfully catered for others, now it was necessary that he should be catered for. He found just the thing, and now is able to cater for people when they are sick as well as in health. He is an interesting talker:

"The great strain of the past few months did indeed break down my health and strength," he said, "and I grew weak and dizzy, tired easily and was terribly nerv-

"I was often absent-minded and drowsy, and my memory was very poor. I could get nothing to do me any good until I used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I found this wonderful medicine the finest thing I have ever used. It is better than the combined services of doctors for years. "When I began to take it I was a mere shadow. Now I have wholly recovered my health and strength, and entirely through the marvelous health-giving properties of

"I most earnestly recommend its use, and all my friends to whom I have recommended it tell the same story-it cures every time." And the extraordinary thing about it is that it will cure when other medicines fail.

It is a sure thing. Given a case where the nerves are weak, the blood poor, or when the stomach, kidneys or liver are out of order, or when there is poor appetite, constipation, headache, bad feeling head, sleeplessness at night, with tired feeling on awakening in the morning. and it will cure these symptoms almost like magic. It is purely vegetable and harmless. All druggists sell it for $1.

It is not a patent medicine, but the discovery and prescription of Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, the most famous and successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The Doctor can be consulted without charge in all cases, either personally or by letter.
